THIS MONTH'S COVER

This month, the Camp Zama Bowling Center tops the MWR news. SGT Brian Glass of Dentac (left) and SFC Rondney Hargus (center) of the 88th MP Det each bowled 300 on our Camp Zama lanes. It's not the first for SGT Glass -- he's bowled a 300 eight times so far. This latest game earns him a ring from the United States Bowling Congress and registration in the database of their national register. SFC Hargus also had an 827 series which earns him a ring for the 300 and another ring for the 800 series from the Bowling Congress. He has also bowled a 300 at a Japanese bowling center before this one at Camp Zama. Additionally, each received a bowling shirt, a gold pin and a new bowling ball from Martha Green (right), Camp Zama Bowling Center Manager. Martha has challenge sign ups every Wednesday during free bowling family time to "Bowl Against the 300 Club".

Soldiers + Cheerleaders + Football = A "SUPER" Community

The Super Bowl Party held at the Zama Community Club on Monday, 6 February, will be a memorable one for a long time for all those who attended.

The anticipation of the game, and the impending appearance of the cheerleaders, were evident very early in the morning as participants began arriving before 0600. By 0630, the waiting line extended the length of the community club.

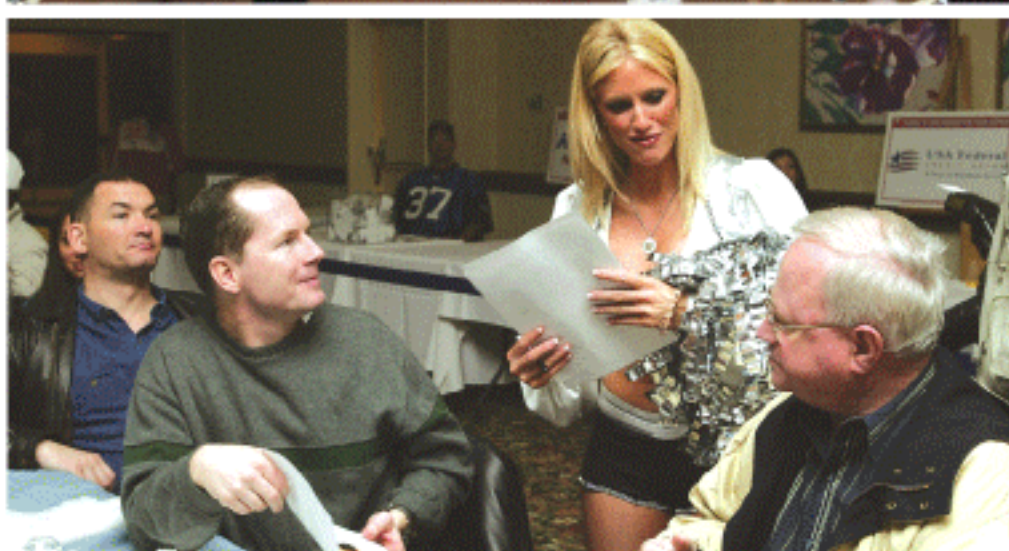

The "headline" for entertainment, and Zama's "special guest" for the Party, the Oakland Raider Cheerleaders, did not disappoint an enthusiastic crowd of Steeler and Seahawk fans who clapped and cheered, and sometimes sang, throughout the game.

Their energetic dance, proactive response interacting with the audience, including taking unlimited photos and graciously signing countless autographs, were highly appreciated by a diverse military audience, plus a large number of civilian employees who didn't want to miss one of the major USA sporting events of the year.

.....SUPER BOWL.....SUPER PARTY.....SUPER AUDIENCE.....and to the "o", you were SUPER too!!! Thanks for making our day a memorable one.
